MASS THEME EXPLAINED

Palm Sunday

Palms are blessed in a special ceremony before Holy Mass. Make a cross from these branches for a place of honor at the family table today.

We carry palm branches as a tribute of waving joy, before Christ, victorious over death; also as a symbol of our wavering fickleness, betraying Christ unto His Death.

Jesus is our “example;” let us never lose sight of the eternal joy of “sharing in His Resurrection,” when with Him we now “suffer on a cross” (PRAYER).

In glorious language, we read how the Son of God became the “slave” of man; how “He humbled Himself” and is now our pledge “in the glory of God the Father” (EPISTLE).

Even as Christ adhered to the Father, so must we, despite the seeming “prosperity of the sinner” (GRADUAL).

The “long Gospel” enables us, as it were, to be eyewitnesses of Christ’s Passion and Death, revealing His love “unto the end.”

(Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. Stedman)

On Palm Sunday is reproduced the triumphal procession which accompanied our Lord when He entered Jerusalem.

PRAYER TO ST PATRICK, BISHOP AND APOSTLE OF IRELAND

The date and place of St. Patrick’s birth are uncertain. He was born about the year 387, the son of Calpurnium and Conchessa. In his sixteenth year, he was carried as a captive into Ireland and obliged to serve a heathen master as herdsman. Escaping from captivity he prepared himself in the schools of Tours and Lerins to be the instrument and Apostle of God in converting Ireland. Pope Celestine I commissioned him, and having received Episcopal consecration in 442, he began his wonderful mission of winning to Christ a pagan nation, and making it an island famous for its seats of piety and learning. St. Patrick died March 17, 493, in the monastery of Saul, in Down in Ulster, where his remains, and thirty years later, the body of St. Bridgid, the Mary of Ireland, were buried in one grave. Amen

DONATE FOR A EASTER LILIES AND FLOWERS

Every year, we fill the chapel with Easter Lilies and Flowers to celebrate Our Lord's Crucifixion and Resurrection. They adorn our chapel from Good Friday through the end of Easter Week. You can help us beautify God's house by making donations for Easter Lilies and Flowers today. Provide your name and the names of you loved one and they will be printed on a special page in the Chapel Bulletin. For your convenience, cash donations can be place in the jar marked “Flowers” located on the table in the Break Room. If you have any questions, please contact Jimmie.

EASTER DUTY

Remember, The Church’s love for us requires that all Confess their sins in the Easter season and receive Communion properly in the Easter season.

It is a sign of Holy Mother Church’s love for us as she gives us an objective measure of our good will toward her. Objective because: one, we will know we are in good standing as a Catholic. Two, all Catholics may, by grace, find a way to fulfill this duty: Divine Providence will grant us the graces to turn to Him thru the Sacramental grace of Confession.

Let us fulfill our duties, Loving God by approaching the Sacraments faithfully and fruitfully).

CHAPEL INFORMATION

Guests: Welcome. Our Chapel follows the Traditional Latin Mass and Sacraments of the Roman Catholic Church prior to Second Vatican Council in 1962. If you wish to join our parish you are encouraged to meet to our Priest and to discuss any questions or concerns regarding spiritual needs and requirements for receiving the Sacraments. General questions about our Chapel can be answered by any or our Chapel Board Members, who can be identified by their Immaculate Heart of Mary lapel pins. To be registered with Our Chapel, please provide your name and address in an offering envelope.

Chapel Modesty Code: According to Apostolic custom and Church Law, women and girls are required to have their heads covered. Out of respect for Our Lord and mutual edification, men and women should dress modestly. Slacks, shorts, sleeveless and low-cut dresses do not meet the norm of Christian modesty. Clothes which are too casual are inappropriate. This matter is evidence of your love for Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

Father Mauricio Zarate, Pastor; Father Emilio Jose Fattore, Assistant
Society of Priests of St. Louis, King of France

The Immaculate Heart of Mary Roman Catholic Chapel safeguards the Traditional Latin Mass and Sacraments of the Roman Catholic Church as directed by the Council of Trent and promulgated by Pope St. Pius V.
